

Who are we?

The Pacific Battleship Center, doing business as the National Museum of the Surface Navy, is the fifth (5th) most popular tourist attraction in the greater Los Angeles area. Battleship IOWA engages guests and students in unique and exciting ways that bring the ship to life by connecting the past with the present and future. The ship provides the community with a platform for museum tours, veterans programs, educational opportunities, and a venue for special events and community efforts across a wide range of activities throughout the year.

About the Battleship IOWA Museum

Located in San Pedro, Calif., Battleship USS IOWA Museum is one of the top five museums and attractions in Los Angeles, bringing the ship's history to life through in-person and virtual tours and educational programs for youth. In addition to providing a natural platform for veterans and patriotic civilians to come together as a community, Battleship USS IOWA Museum offers a wide array of impactful programs and resources that support the critical needs of our military and veterans.

The museum is owned and operated by Pacific Battleship Center, a 510c3 non-profit organization solely supported by admissions, donations, event space rentals, and a gift shop. We do not receive government funding for our operations.
